

_PAsup_ManageAlternateTests

Alternate assessment is a term that encompasses any of a variety of means for evaluating what an individual knows or is able to do through some means other than a traditional, standardized test. Often, this form of assessment is evidence-based, with evaluation standards and measurement criteria centering on demonstrated skills or a portfolio of work associated with a specified subject area or domain of learning.