

PAsup_enrollmentTransfer_introduction

A student must be associated with an organization to test. You can transfer students from one organization to another, which means their association is changed from one organization, or school, to another. A transfer requires the student's current organization to request the change, and an approval of the transfer request from the organization where student needs to be transferred.